

Paul B. Stares

Paul B. Stares is the General John W. Vessey senior fellow for conflict prevention and director of the Center for Preventive Action at the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR). An expert on conflict prevention and a regular commentator on current affairs, he is the author or editor of nine books on U.S. security policy and international relations.

America's Next War and How to Prevent It

Join us as Dr. Paul Stares present his talk entitled “America's Next War and How to Prevent it.” With continuing friction with North Korea over its nuclear developments, China over South/East China Sea, Russia over Ukraine/E. Europe, the endgame in Syria and Afghanistan and growing tensions with Iran; Dr Paul Stares addresses potential crises and introduces a comprehensive guide to preventive action for U.S. policymakers.

This discussion will be followed by an introduction and signing of his book “Preventive Engagement: How America Can Avoid War, Stay Strong, and Keep the Peace.”

This event is sponsored by GPS's Korea-Pacific Program, the UC San Diego Political Science Department's Center for Peace and Security Studies \(cPASS\), and the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR).
